

CONFLICT MANGEMENT COACHING

Conflict often occurs in Christian and biblically-based settings and relationships. Many who serve in ministry tend to avoid conflict. Learning to manage conflict is a learned discipline that greatly improves ministry effectiveness. A positive approach to conflict will reduce your stress and increase your productivity as a Christian leader.

This coaching will help you identify your conflict approaches. You will discover avenues to new skills when faced with a potentially conflicted situation.

The Conflict Management Coaching service offers you an inexpensive personal assessment, and one-on-one teaching and confidential coaching. You will receive a survey to complete and then send to your coach. The coach will provide teaching and coaching by appointment via telephone or Skype. This assessment, and the insights gained, will help you interpret and learn more about your conflict management style. This will enhance your leadership and management in the sensitive environment of the Christian Church. It will provide direction for the rest of your career.

You will learn that conflict is neither good nor bad. Managing conflict is the key! Sometimes, when properly managed, conflict provides great new opportunities and insights.

The base rate for this coaching service is $250, including the assessment and initial coaching call. Follow-up coaching plans are available to meet your specific needs.

"I can't believe I didn't learn this as I prepared for ministry. No one should have to face conflict in a church without these insights. Thank you so much!"
