

The transformational change of the Christian Church toward the effective implementation of the Lord's Great Commission to make disciples of all peoples.

